IN AND AROUND DULWICH HILL

Just choose how you want to get there and you can reach the city and your inner west neighbours by public transport within minutes.

TRANSPORT

Located 11 km from the city centre and with multiple transport options, getting around is easy.

You can be in the CBD within 20 minutes from Hurlstone Park Station (7 minutes walk).

The light rail Dulwich Grove station is just 10 minutes walk from Dulwich Green, which stops at Leichardt and the Sydney Fish Markets and takes you right to Haymarket/Central in 35 minutes.

The NSW Government recently announced the Bankstown Line will be upgraded as part of Sydney Metro. By 2019 there will be a train every 4 minutes in peak hour. See sydnymetro.info for more information.

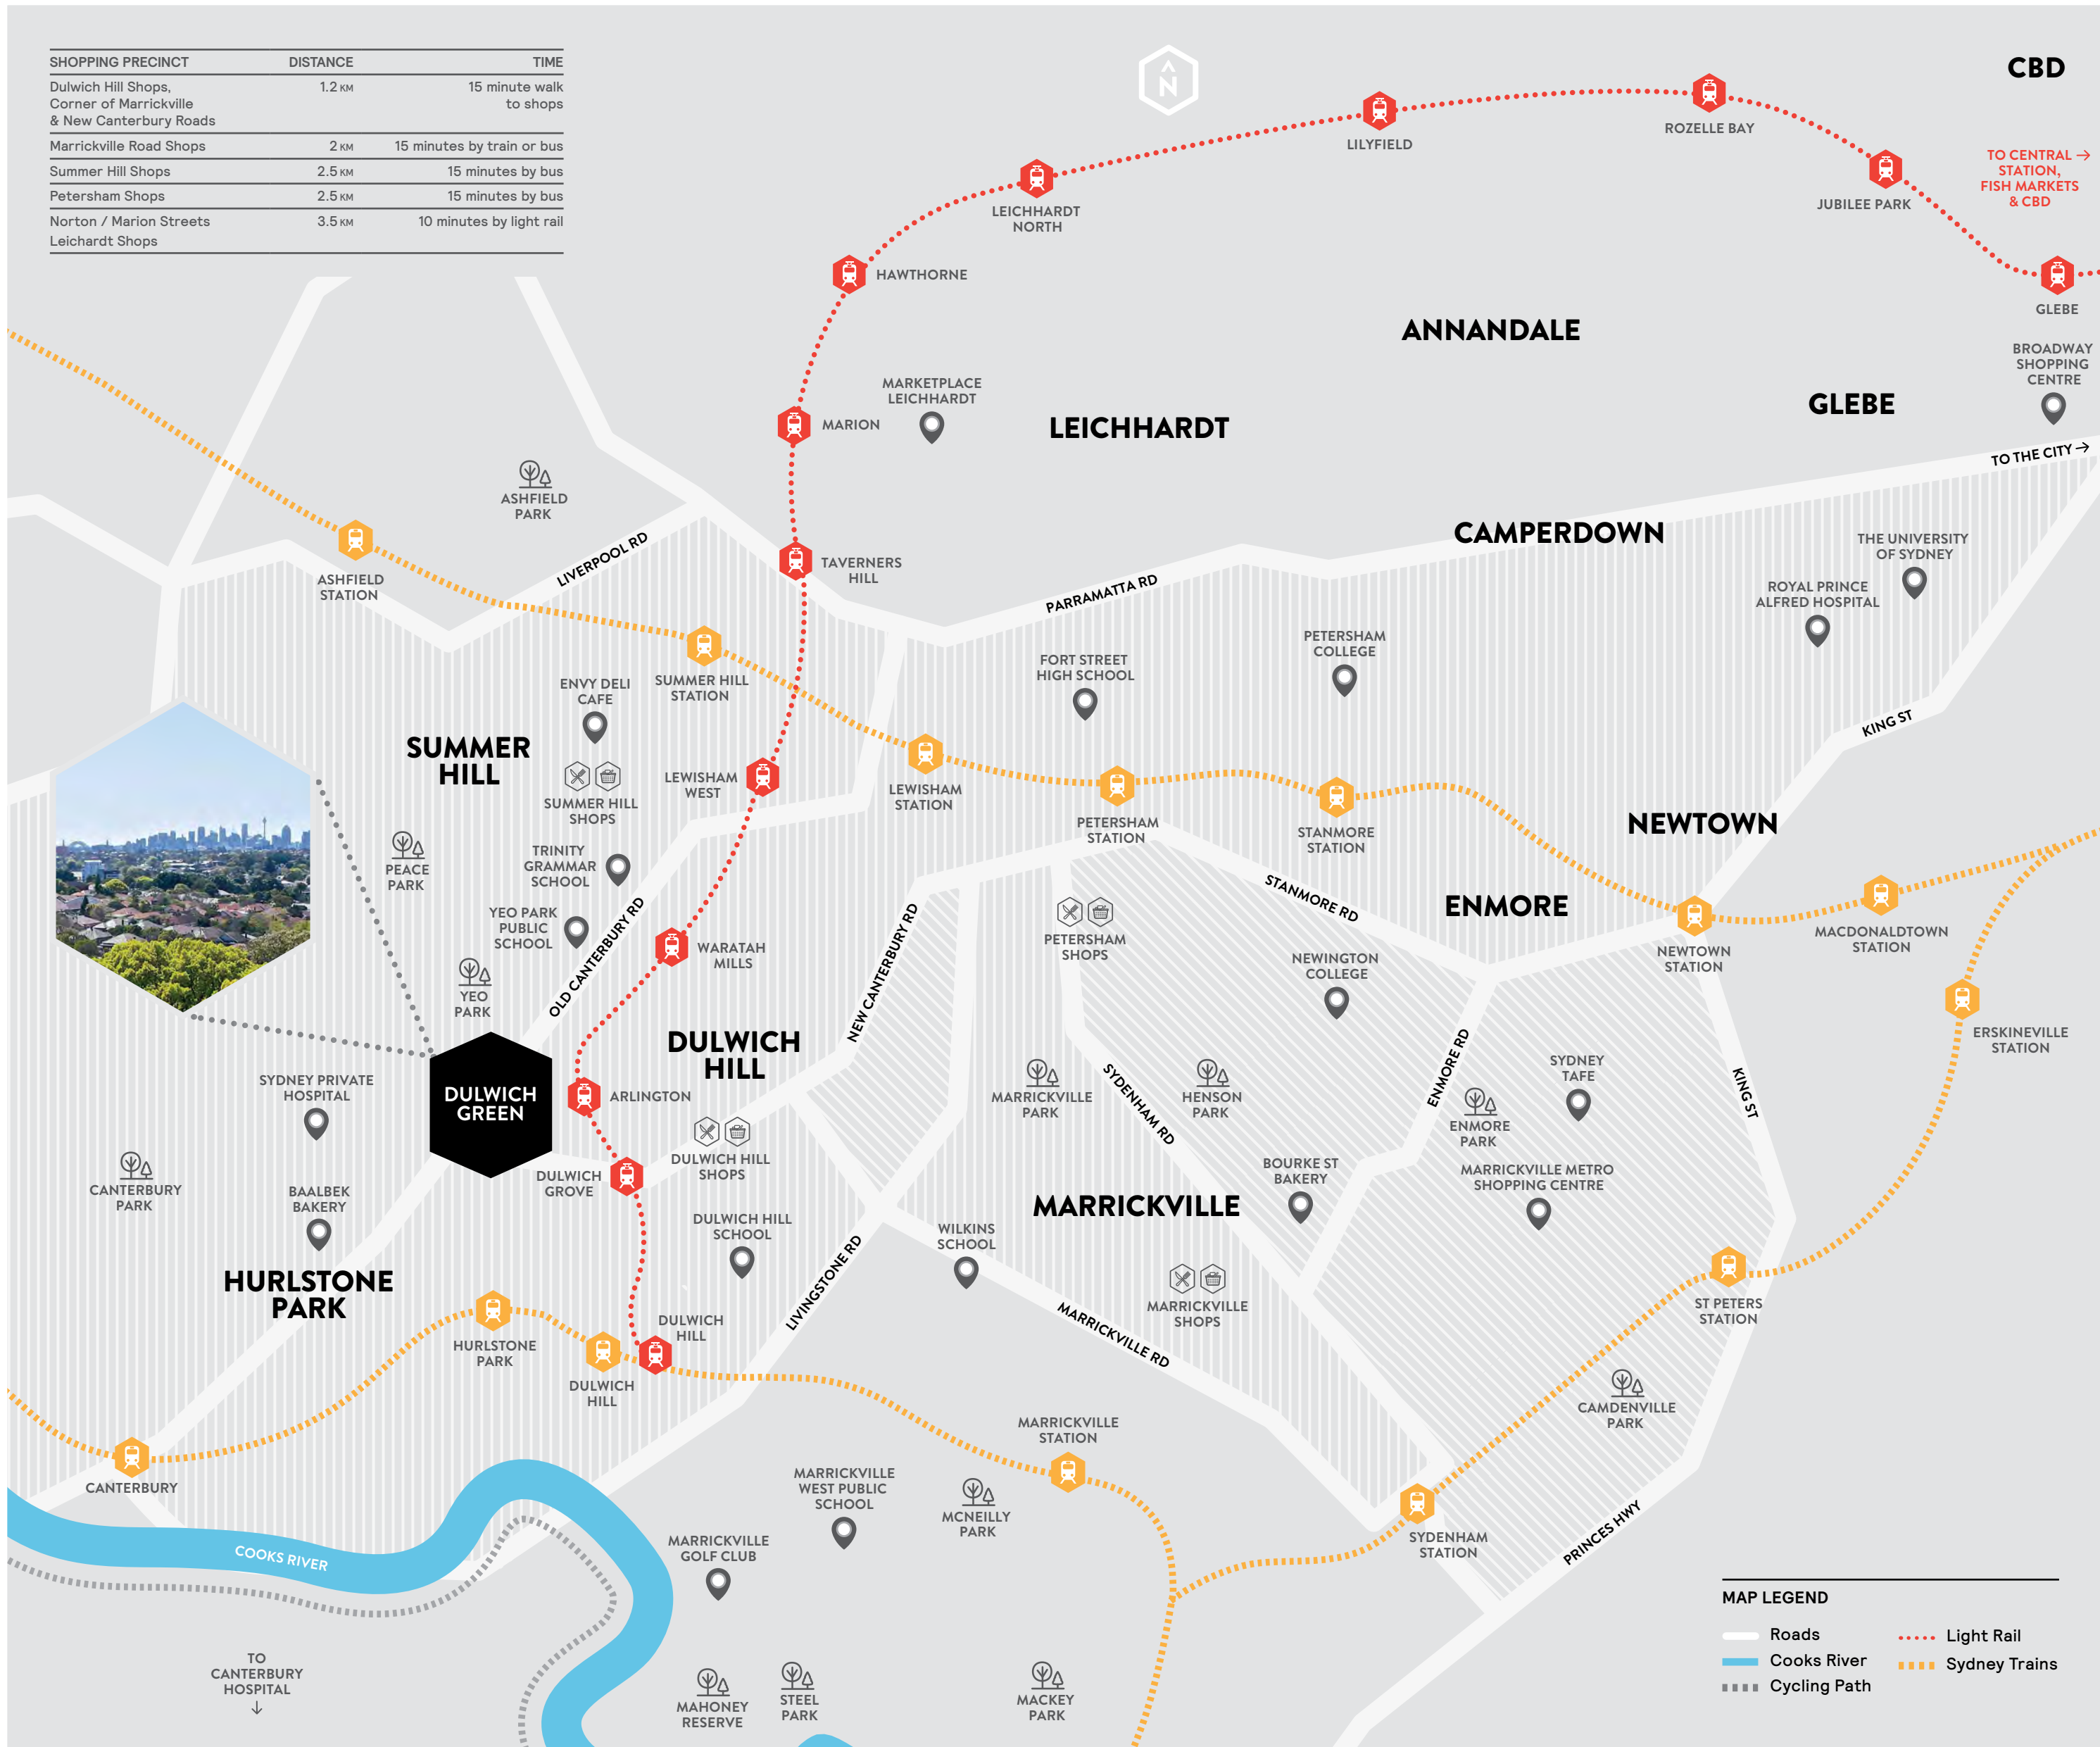

CYCLE PATHS

Cycling is becoming increasingly popular, not only for exercise but also as a form of commuter transport. Marrickville Council has regenerated Camperdown to Cooks River cycle paths so locals can enjoy cycling for leisure and commuting.

SERVICES AND AMENITIES

Leading hospitals Prince of Wales, Royal Hospital for Women and Canterbury Hospital are close by. Sydney Kingsford Smith Domestic and International Airports are accessible within 30 minutes from Dulwich Green.
